A Boston physician has created something of a stir among his professional brethren by the following statement: "An operation for appendicitis should be prohibited by law. I have been following the records of appendicitis operations ever since the craze for this form of surgery started, and I confidently believe that the day is coming when the people will realize that the cutting of the appendix is a criminal operation. After the widely proclaimed benefits and saving of life by operations to cut the appendix, it seems hardly necessary to cite the long list of deaths following the operation."—Bryan's Commoner.
